Welcome to double click" Welcome to the site of the chat" Welcome to the chat Í»enta Welcome to the chat 2Á' Á'Á«Good afternoon. I am a young man, I did not understand my not so long acquaintance with this project, what is its (story) value? What is it that draws readers in? What's the point in wasting our time? None. At least it doesnâ€™t fit in my head, how can you sit for hours and stick to the fact that absolutely nothing happened, if you think about it, because the more we participate in this project, the less information we get to think about. Well, how many people will look at the gray rectangle of the monitor, thinking about something that has not happened yet, as opposed to reading the news feed, for example? More than half will simply scroll through this message and switch to something new. For example, I would have continued to read with such interest, if not for the abundance of exclamation marks. I am very glad that I have the opportunity not to waste time and read your story, but still I ask you to take a closer look at what is written in your story. I read the "work" and immediately got the feeling that I was watching a movie. Well, or it will be nothing more than just two hours spent watching a literary work. By and large, there was no sense in any of the episodes of the story. I'll start in order: 1. Once I connected to the chat system and more on that later, and so, I started to come to the hotel every other day on exactly the same day that I had already been. 2. They were all slaves. This seems to be the same as about blacks, but in this case these are dirty words and they are not related to the word "slaves", but relate to the topic of selling one's body for money. I already wrote earlier that I did not understand who these people are to judge. Maybe they're human traffickers, but that didn't occur to me. In general, I call people like them "losers". I am glad, of course, that people like them left in our society, but I don't understand how it could happen to these people so that they become a slave
